| | | flush in Hoshino (star field), made from extra-fine leaves ,with a smooth, sweet, brilliant green cup . A remarkable tea! |  | |
| 1680 | Gyokuro Kirishima | This Gyokuro comes from the Kirishima area in southern Japan. When you open the lovingly designed protective pack, you will smell the freshness of the tea. This freshness is retained even when poured on. In terms of taste, the tea is a light Gyokuro with a fresh - nutty note and can therefore also be recommended for beginners. The cup is yellowish-green. The tea is organic. |  | 35.00 € |
| 1645 | Gyokuro Hoshino Dento Hon Gyokuro | The village of Hoshino (Starfield) has a population of about 3.500 and a 800-year-old tradition in making tea. The village is surrounded by hills, creating a very favourable climate and soil conditions, which is irrigated by the clearest springs. The local people cultivate the Shizuku Cha, a traditional way of drinking Gyokuro. |  | 39.00 € |
| 1616 | Sencha Shizuku No.1 Hoshino | A wonderful first flush Sencha from Hoshino (star field) with a smooth, sweet, bright green cup, stunning aroma and finely rolled leaves. A special tea for connoisseurs; highly recommended! |  | 26.00 € |
| 1607 | Sencha Honyama-Cha | This tea comes from the Honyama tea-growing region, which lies on the Abe River. Tea has been grown in this area for over 800 years. The tea is known among connoisseurs for its fresh and sweet aroma. |  | 29.00 € |
| 1699 | Shincha - Sakura No - Kumamoto | The tea garden of the Matsumoto family in Kumamoto is only two hektar. Over generations the familys never used pesticides. This tea from Kumamoto (Kyushu) have a clear and bright - greenish, refreshing cup and a wonderful springful smell. This Shincha is harvested in the middle/ end of april 2023. |  | 24.00 € |
| 1612 | Gyokuro Shizuoka | The Gyokuro Karigane from Shizuoka is a light tea with a floral taste. We recommend infusing the tea with 50°C warm water (10g for 60ml). The first infusion should take 2 minutes and the second 30 seconds. | | 16.00 € |

| | | |  | |
| 1630 | Kukicha Shizuoka | The Kukicha from Shizuoka is a stem tea. The aroma is conducted into the leaf via the stems. This makes the tea on the stalk particularly aromatic. We recommend infusing the tea with 80°C warm water (5g for 450 ml). The first infusion should steep for 60 seconds and the second for 5 seconds. |  | 16.00 € |
| 16034 | Matcha Seiju Hoshino | Smooth, very intense premium matcha with a jade-green cup. This tea has been consistently voted one of the top ten teas in Japan at regional tea-tasting competitions (Hinbyokai). Tin/ caddy containing 20g (100g/175,00 €) |  | 39.50 € |
| 1631 | Shincha Miumori | The tea was harvested on April 24th, 2024 and processed into Aracha. The leaves were sorted and heated at a low temperature. The short steaming of the leaf keeps it a beautiful needle shape and retains the fresh lightness of spring. The tea tastes slightly sweet with a mild fruity note. A delicate umami can be tasted on the tongue in the aftertaste. The tea has a clear and rather light yellow-green infusion. Our tip: due to the processing, the tea should be used up quickly. |  | 21.00 € |
| 1632 | Kadota Aracha Shincha | The tea consists mainly of the leaves of the Yabukita plant, which grows on the Arasaki hillside. The leaves are processed using old machines, and the final heating step is deliberately omitted. This gives the Aracha Shincha a clear, light yellow-green infusion, with a delicate sweetness and a long aftertaste. To enjoy the full aroma of the tea, we recommend a water temperature of 80°C and a brewing time of less than a minute. Fewer leaves should also be used. Use the tea within 10 days after opening. |  | 16.50 € |
| 1647 | Shincha Yame supreme | This Tea from Yame in the NW of Kyushu have a clear yello-greenish cup and a wonderful springful smell. | | 15.00 € |

| 1614 | Sencha Kaori (Shizuoka) | A very full-bodied, grassy-fresh, good tea of medium quality with a bright green-yellow cup. Its special freshness is produced by subjecting it to a second drying (roasting) process. Very much recommended! |  | 15.00 € |
| 1698 | Magome Honyama Monouyaku | This tea is very well balanced and have a sweet-grassy, leightly milky taste and a bright yellow-greenish infusion. The leaf is very well made. Monouyaku "out of anything" - no chemicals, no fertilizer! |  | 25.00 € |
| 1600 | Sencha Yutaka Midori (Rarity made from ancient tea plants) | Intense, spicy, delicately tart first flush tea with a delicate fragrance and jade-green cup. The Yutaka Midori tea plant is very rare, has round, closely spaced leaves and can be harvested early. A tea full of vitality and freshness. |  | 17.50 € |
| 1603 | Sencha Oku Yutaka (Rarity made from ancient tea plants) | In the 1980s this tea plant was bred by crossing a Yabutika with a Yutaka Midori tea plant. Its leaves are slightly smaller and softer than those of a Yutaka tea plant. This tea has a wonderful, sweet aroma and bright green, harmonious and elegant, smooth cup. |  | 18.50 € |
| 1658 | Sencha No.1 (Kirishima) | A wonderful first flush Sencha from Kirishima in Kyushu with a smooth, sweet, and almost overpowering aroma, magnificently processed leaves and radiantly green cup. A special tea for connoisseurs from one of the most spectacular regions in Japan. Highly recommended! |  | 21.00 € |
| 1609 | Ureshino Cha (Kyushu) | Ureshino in Saga Prefecture is famous for its specially made tea. After they have been steamed, the leaves are roasted in an oven (Kama) and shaped into so-called Tamagata (curls). This is a delicate tea with a grassy, sweet, nutty and strong aroma that is suitable for beginners and will delight tea lovers instantaneously. |  | 27.00 € |

| | | green colour. It can be enjoyed cold, on ice, as well as in the usual way (Various serving suggestions can be found in the package). A generous pinch of matcha is enough for making one cup of this wonderful drink. It is also perfect for making matcha ice-cream. A definite must-have! |  | |
| 1672 | Sencha and Gyokuro in Tea bags from Hoshino | Premium and spicy, fragrant Senchas that can also be prepared cold and is on a par with premium loose Senchas or Gyokuro. Two to three infusions are possible. One pack contains 75,00 gramm - 15 bags weighing 5g each, which is enough for a total of about 12 - 15 litres of tea. Green - Sencha superfine (19,34€/100g) |  | 18.00 € |
| 1650 | Premium Sencha Sunday Morning | A wonderful premium first flush sencha from Umegashima, (in the altitude off 1000 meters, in the north of Shizuoka), with a very tastful and smooth, perfekt balanced flavour (Amami and Shibumi) and a bright green cup. A very special tea for Sunday Morning! |  | 31.00 € |
| 1608 | Premium Fukamushi Sencha (Shizuoka) | This special tea from Shizuoka has wonderfully rich taste with a nice sweet base note. It brews to a bright golden-green cup. Pre-warm the teapot and cups before pouring the tea into them. I recommend about 5g of tea for a 200ml teapot. Infuse the leaves with water measuring about 70°C. 1st infusion: about 60 seconds; 2nd infusion: 10 seconds. |  | 26.50 € |
| 1683 | Sencha Tokujou (Miyazaki) | A wonderfull grassy, fragrant Sencha with a delicate, fresh, intense cup and lingering finish. An exceptional discovery and absolute delicacy that connoisseurs will truly enjoy. 'TOKUJU' means that this is a premium quality Sencha. Instructions: Use about 6g (2 tsp. of tea) for 200ml of hot water (at a temperature of 60C). 1st infusion: about 1 min. 2nd & 3rd infusion: 5 sec. |  | 21.00 € |
| 1623 | Sencha Momiji | This Tea from Yame in the NW of Kyushu have a strong clear greenish cup, wonderful sweetness and smell and a strong aroma. The tea was stored for 6 month by minus 30°C to get this wonderful fine taste. In the old days the shinchu (new tea) was carried in the high mountains to store the tea for six month to have the same result. |  | 37.50 € |
